

Corporate Governance Statement

National Tyre & Wheel Limited (NTAW) is committed to achieving and demonstrating effective standards of corporate governance. NTAW has reviewed its corporate governance practices against the Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (3rd edition) published by the ASX Corporate Governance Council ('the Recommendations').

This Corporate Governance Statement was approved by the Board on 29 August 2018 and reflects the corporate governance practices in place from 15 December 2017, the date of NTAW's admission to the Australian Securities Exchange, until 30 June 2018 ('the reporting period').

This Corporate Governance Statement discloses the extent to which NTAW complies with the Recommendations and if it does not, why not. The commentary addresses the reasons for any departure from the requirements.

NTAW's Corporate Governance Statement can be viewed at www.ntaw.com.au/Corporate-Governance.

Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (3 rd Edition)	Compliance from date of listing to 30 June 2018	Explanation
Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight Listed entities should establish and disclose the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management and how their performance is monitored and evaluated
Recommendation 1.1 A listed entity should disclose: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Complies	The roles and responsibilities of the Board and management and the matters expressly reserved by the Board and those delegated to management are disclosed in the Company's Board Charter. A copy of the Board Charter is available on NTAW's website at www.ntaw.com.au/Corporate-Governance.
Recommendation 1.2 A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director	Complies	The Company undertook appropriate checks on proposed Board members prior to the Company's listing on the ASX, including in relation to criminal record, character and experience. NTAW will provide all material information to shareholders relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director at future general meetings.
Recommendation 1.3 A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Complies	The Company has written agreements with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.
Recommendation 1.4 The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Complies	The Company secretary is accountable to the Board, through the Chairman, on matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board (clause 3.3(b) of the Board Charter).

Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (3 rd Edition)	Compliance from date of listing to 30 June 2018	Explanation
Recommendation 1.5 A listed entity should: (a) have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the board or a relevant committee of the board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually both the objectives and the entity's progress in achieving them; (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it; and (c) disclose as at the end of each reporting period the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the board or a relevant committee of the board in accordance with the entity's diversity policy and its progress towards achieving them, and either: (1) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (2) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act.	Does not comply	The Board considers that at this time no efficiencies or other benefits would be gained by introducing a formal diversity policy. In the future, as NTAW grows, and increases in size and activity, the Board will consider the establishment of a formal diversity policy. The following table shows the respective proportions of men and women in the Group as at 30 June 2018: <table border="1" data-bbox="895 622 1414 779"> <thead> <tr> <th>Level</th> <th>Men</th> <th>Women</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Board</td> <td>100%</td> <td>0%</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Senior executive ¹</td> <td>87%</td> <td>13%</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Whole organisation</td> <td>78%</td> <td>22%</td> </tr> </tbody> </table> ¹ Senior Executives include the CEO and his direct reports	Level	Men	Women	Board	100%	0%	Senior executive ¹	87%	13%	Whole organisation	78%	22%
Level	Men	Women
Board	100%	0%
Senior executive ¹	87%	13%
Whole organisation	78%	22%
Recommendation 1.6 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Complies	The Board has developed a framework to facilitate an annual review of the performance of the Board, its committees and individual directors against the relevant charters, corporate governance policies and agreed goals and objectives. During the reporting period, the Board conducted an informal review of its performance since listing and considered the matrix of skills that it has and is seeking to achieve in its membership (refer section 2.2 below). The results of the review have been used to establish objectives and priorities for the coming year.

Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (3 rd Edition)	Compliance from date of listing to 30 June 2018	Explanation
Recommendation 1.7 A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Complies	As outlined in the Board Charter, the Board is responsible for conducting an annual performance evaluation of the CEO, which is to be led by the Chairman of the Board. The CEO is responsible for conducting the annual performance reviews of other senior executives and providing feedback to the Remuneration and Nominations Committee so they may consider targets, KPIs and remuneration changes. The Remuneration and Nominations Committee will report to the Board on the outcomes. Performance reviews have been conducted in relation to the reporting period. A review of the remuneration framework has been undertaken during the reporting period, which will result in measurable KPIs being set for future years, against which the performance of senior executives can be more comprehensively measured. A copy of the Board and Committee charters is available on NTAW's website at www.ntaw.com.au/Corporate-Governance.
Principle 2 – Structure the board to add value A listed entity should have a board of an appropriate size, composition, skills and commitment to enable it to discharge its duties effectively
