

REMUNERATION AND NOMINATIONS COMMITTEE CHARTER

1. ESTABLISHMENT OF THE COMMITTEE

This document sets out the specific responsibilities delegated by the Board to the Remuneration and Nominations Committee of National Tyre & Wheel Limited ACN 095 843 020 (Company) and provides a framework for the Committee's operations.

The Committee is not a decision making body. The Committee does not have the power or authority to make a decision in the Board's name or on its behalf.

The Committee will make recommendations to the Board on all matters requiring a decision.

2. OBJECTIVES AND PURPOSE - REMUNERATION

The primary objective of the Committee in relation to remuneration is to assist the Board to discharge its responsibilities with regard to the following areas:

- (a) enabling the Company to attract and retain executives and directors who will create value for shareholders and who will support the Company's mission;
- (b) fairly and responsibly rewarding executives having regard to the performance of the Company, the performance of the executive and the general pay environment including incentive schemes;
- (c) ensuring that the Company has appropriate remuneration policies and monitoring their implementation including with respect to senior executives and executive directors; and
- (d) ensuring that reporting disclosures related to remuneration meet all relevant legal requirements.

3. COMMITTEE'S RESPONSIBILITIES - REMUNERATION

3.1 General

The Committee's responsibilities in relation to remuneration include:

- (a) assisting the Board in setting the executive remuneration policy;
- (b) making recommendations to the Board for reviewing and approving the remuneration of executive and non-executive directors and senior executives as defined by the Board; and
- (c) reviewing and approving the remuneration of the Chief Executive Officer/Managing Director (CEO).

3.2 Remuneration of the CEO and senior executives

The Committee should:

- (a) review, in accordance with the Company's remuneration policies and practices, all components of the remuneration of the CEO and approve the remuneration of the CEO;
- (b) have oversight over the review of remuneration of senior executives, in accordance with the Company's remuneration policies and practices, including the Chief Financial Officer, Chief Operating Officer and subsidiary business general managers;

- (c) receive feedback in relation to the annual performance evaluations of the CEO and senior executives, and consider targets, KPI's and changes to the CEO's and other senior executives' remuneration for the coming financial year;
- (d) review the terms of employment contracts;
- (e) review the terms of the Company's short and long term incentive plans, including targets and KPIs;
- (f) review senior executive training and development; and
- (g) make recommendations for Board approval in regard to the remuneration of all senior executives excluding the CEO.

4. OBJECTIVES AND PURPOSE - NOMINATIONS

The primary objective of the Committee in relation to nominations is to assist the Board to discharge its responsibilities with regard to the following areas:

- (a) overseeing the composition of the Board and competencies of Board members;
- (b) providing recommendations on the appointment of the CEO;
- (c) ensuring that appropriate procedures exist to assess the performance levels of the non-executive directors and executive directors; and
- (d) developing succession plans for the Board and overseeing development by management of succession planning for senior executives.

5. COMMITTEE'S RESPONSIBILITIES - NOMINATIONS

The Committee's responsibilities in relation to nominations include:

- (a) reviewing management succession planning for the Company in general, but specifically in regard to the CEO and senior executives reporting to the CEO;
- (b) reviewing the appointments and terminations to senior executive positions reporting to the CEO, and if requested by the Board, making recommendations regarding the appointment of the CEO;
- (c) reviewing and making recommendations to the Board regarding the appointment of non-executive directors, including:
 - (i) periodically assessing the appropriate mix of skills, experience, expertise and diversity required on the Board and assessing the extent to which the required skills are represented on the Board;
 - (ii) making recommendations to the Board about strategies to promote diversity at Board level and in the Company as a whole;
 - (iii) establishing processes for the identification of suitable candidates for appointment to the Board;
 - (iv) monitoring the length of service of current Board members, considering succession planning issues and identifying the likely order of retirement by rotation of non-executive directors; and
 - (v) establishing processes for the review of the performance of individual non-executive directors, the Board as a whole and the operation of Board committees;

- (d) developing a skills matrix to help with the identification of the skills of the Board in order to achieve the objective set out in section 5(c)(i) with respect to all directors; and
- (e) developing and implementing a program for inducting new directors including providing professional development opportunities for directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their roles effectively.

6. PROCEDURE AND POLICY FOR SELECTION AND APPOINTMENT OF NEW DIRECTORS AND THE RE-ELECTION OF INCUMBENT DIRECTORS

6.1 Retirement and re-election

- (a) Before a director is required to retire by rotation the Committee will ascertain whether he or she wishes to seek re-election and will consider relevant issues regarding the current position of the Company as well as the intended future direction of the Company in order to determine whether or not to recommend that the director be re-elected.
- (b) If the Committee does decide to recommend the re-election of the incumbent director the Committee should:
 - (i) consider whether an additional director should be appointed who may be able to provide additional specialist knowledge or experience of value to the Company;
 - (ii) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a new director or putting forward a new candidate for election as a new director; and
 - (iii) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect a new director.

6.2 Appointment of additional director

If the Committee determines that an additional director should be appointed to the Board, or a new director to replace an outgoing director, the Committee should:

- (a) consider whether an external executive search firm should be engaged in order to assist with the process of establishing criteria which the incoming director must satisfy and to identify potential candidates;
- (b) undertake appropriate checks before approaching a new director or putting forward a candidate for election as a new director; and
- (c) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect a new director.

6.3 Considerations

When considering the re-election of an incumbent director or election of a new director the Committee will take into account the following:

- (a) business experience, particularly in respect of the industries in which the Company operates;
- (b) standing in the community;
- (c) educational qualifications;
- (d) availability and other directorships;
- (e) the possession of particular skills such as sales and marketing, information technology, logistics, innovation, finance or risk management; and

- (f) whether the appointment or re-appointment will contribute positively to the skill set and experience of the Board as a whole.
